A little about Barnabrow

Rambling old Country Houses, with their sprawling acres, secret passageway, nooks, crannies and generally confusing meanderings – with all of their ramshackle hints of former glory - exude a certain charm. Barnabrow's labyrinths beckon guests to explore and sometimes these curious people are surprised by the occasional fairy that passes them by. Perhaps this is the effect of the Champagne that they are sipping on a rustic deck that catches distant glimpses of Ballycotton Bay. The canapes tantalise the palate and promise of the wedding feast to come.

Your guests are charmed; they wonder at your cleverness to have found such a secret and to have brought them here. They are relaxing now, after the exchange of vows, which happened in the Fairy Grove, beneath tall trees that dappled the sunlight to make the whole ceremony look like an Impressionist painting. Barnabrow means 'Gap in the Fairy Fort' and we aim to keep the essence of the fairies alive to enhance the magic of the moment.

The donkeys help to create this special old world ambiance – they are friendly and often successfully inveigle upon every eager visitor to provide a tasty morsel or two. They have caught the eye of many a wedding photographer – in fact they are probably the most famous donkeys in all of Munster – they are certainly the most photographed. Sometimes they form an appealing backdrop, on other occasions they usurp centre stage. When their shots are taken close up, viewers pay no attention to the bride – the donkey sniffing the proffered bouquet tends to steal the limelight. Beware!

...the tension of the past months begins to melt – your serene visage is momentarily glimpsed by a discreet photographer and is preserved forever. You look beautiful...
